Alumni Legal Directory

This department has been established in pursuance of suggestions from several quarters that such a Directory would prove both interesting and profitable, it being thought that alumni who have legal business in other places would prefer to employ fellow alumni if their addresses were known. Names are inserted at the rate of $1.50 per year (eight numbers). The figures following the name indicate the college year.

Every Lawyer In the Land

- Needs the Co-op Service—a service that is different where the difference counts: in fine analysis, accuracy, and completeness; in the doing of editorial work as well as it can be done.
- Take the Index to All the Law in L.R.A. Notes, and the Digest. These will lead you to the important cases of the past thirty years, and open up to you the vast amount of information contained in their editorial annotation.
- Take the famous Co-op Digest of the United States Supreme Court Reports, which, with the new Decennial Supplement, covers the decisions of the nation's highest court from 1790 to 1917—the final word on the law.
- Take the Co-op Citation Bureau, which furnishes free citations to Co-op subscribers—all the citations of any case in a Federal court or state court of last resort during the past 100 years.
- All these and others, like British Ruling Cases and Public Utilities Reports Annotated, are designed to save your time and effort; many of the nation's brightest minds prefer and use them.

FLETCHER'S CYCLOPEDIA - CORPORATIONS

By William Meade Fletcher, Author of Corporation Forms, etc.

A complete Encyclopedia, covering the whole field. Up to date when an up to date work is needed. Will always be kept up to date by supplements. Written by the greatest collection of corporation specialists ever assembled on any work. Combines the best features of a Text-Book and Cyclopaedia.

Its systematic, logical and encyclopedic arrangement enables the busy lawyer to place his finger on the point wanted instantly.

For the price of eight volumes the subscriber is given the equivalent of twelve volumes.

It cost the Publishers $100,000; is it worth $60.00 to you?

8 large handsome volumes—10,000 pages

Price $60.00 Terms $7.50 cash Balance $7.50 per mo.

NEGLIGENCE COMPENSATION — CASES ANNOTATED —

The definite purpose of this series is to select and collate all decisions bearing on the broad subject of Negligence and to present them in such form that the busy lawyer may be saved much labor in wading through many volumes for a case in point. It is especially complete on the up-to-date phases of Negligence, such as Automobiles, Electricity, Federal Employers' Liability, Workmen's Compensation, etc., etc.

Among the eminent authorities and negligence specialists who have contributed to this great work are: Mr. M. G. Roberts, of the Missouri Bar, Author of Roberts Injuries to Interstate Employees on Railroads. C. P. Berry, Author of Berry's Automobiles, 2nd ed., 1916. Chas. C. Moore, Author Moore on Facts. James Harrington Boyd and Harry B. Bradbury, both authors of books on Workmen's Compensation Law.

14 volumes, now out. A Digest and Key Word Index.

Price $96.00 Terms $6.50 cash Balance $6.50 per mo.

TAYLOR DUE PROCESS OF LAW and THE EQUAL PROTECTION OF LAWS

A treatise based in the main on the cases in which the Supreme Court of the United States has granted or denied relief upon the one ground or the other.

By Hannis Taylor of the Washington, D. C. Bar

The issue in the

EIGHT HOUR LAW CASE

makes it impossible for any American lawyer to be such in any proper sense of the term unless he is master of this vast and complicated subject treated exhaustively in this volume.
